Medicine bought, the greatest living clairvoyant, is now stopping at the Menager Hotel, room 10, where she can be consulted on business, domestic, law suits, absent friends, love, marriage and death. Pay refused if not satisfied.

From Mexico, From a gentleman just returned from Mexico the Luz learns that work on the Mexican National has nearly ceased. Two trains have been pulled off the Monterey run, and no employment can be found for six new Mogul engines, just received from Philadelphia.

A Sad Mother, A Lament, this morning, attracted by the sob of a woman close by his side at the police station, inquired as to the cause, when she informed him she was the mother of the boy caught in company with Smith, the supposed horse thief, who was jailed yesterday; that his name was Willie Needham, aged 13, and that he was being in the county jail which forced her (his mother) to sorrow as she did.

slightly on.

The Austin special to the Houston Post of yesterday states that Ben Thompson and King Fisher were shot with double barreled shotguns by parties connected in the boxes at the theater. This is a rather startling statement, as no evidence of buck shot could be found on the bodies of either. If, as the Post's Austin correspondent states, Ben Thompson's clothes are literally riddled with buck shot, then what became of the shot after they went through the clothes. They did not strike his body. Ben Thompson and King Fisher met their deaths from six shooters. Such reports are wildest rumor.

Arrest of a Supposed Horse Thief.

The officers yesterday arrested a young white man, who gave the name of R. H. Smith, upon suspicion of being a horse thief. On Wednesday the man sold, for $50, two horses, one sorrel and one grey, and signed the bill of sale R. H. Smith. At that time a young boy and two other men were with him. Yesterday he had two more head of horses, one a grey filly, unbranded, and the other an old bay horse with an indistinct brand, thought to be M. The boy was also arrested, but the other two men could not be found. The boy says that the real name of the man arrested is Tom Kelley, and not R. H. Smith. He is especially invited to give us a call, examine our goods and work, and get prices before ordering your spring or summer suit made. Satisfaction warranted. J. J. Jones & Son, Alamo street, near Postoffice.

—Ladies: Mrs. S. Mayer is in receipt of some of the leading styles of trimmed and untrimmed hats, and will be pleased to show them to you if you will favor her with a call.

—Headquarters for ladies and children's underwear in all grades and at the lowest prices at S. Mayer's.

—Bargains in embroideries and lace at S. Mayer's.

—Summer silks just received, and evening silks in light shades, at S. Mayer's.

—The continual rush at S. Mayer's is enough guarantee that he sells his goods at low figures.

—For the prettiest novelties in the line of neckwear for ladies and children go to S. Mayer's.

—The prettiest parasols and fans are to be found at S. Mayer's.

Recorder's Court.
There were 13 offenders before the Recorder this morning, seven of whom charged with vagrancy. These were Charles Oakland, Henry Wilson, Andrew Mack, William Jackson, Dan Tomney, Arthur Marwitz and William Davis. All except the last named pleaded guilty, and were fined $10, or 30 days in jail. Mrs. Hutton was fined $5 for using insulting language; Dionisio Carvajal and H. J. Marshall drunk and down $5 each; W. W. Hunt, careless driving, $10; S. Jones carrying pistol, $25; George Mockert, Jr., discharging fire arms in the city limits, dismissed. The remaining vagrant, William Davis, pleaded not guilty, and announced his ability to prove he was not a vagrant; case postponed until to-morrow morning, and attachments issued for witnesses.

Fine Music.
Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co., of Boston, have sent the Luz eight pieces of fine music. Their titles and prices are as follows: Angelus, 30 cents, song by F. Root; Golden Love, 35 cents, song by Wellings; Going to Market, 35 cents, song by Diehl; Gentle Faces, 30 cents, song by Bonheur; Till the Roses Wake Again, 30 cents, song by Christie; Romance for Piano, 40 cents, by J. K. Palmer; The Rat, polka caprice, 35 cents, by W. G. Smith; Helter Skelter, violin and piano, 40 cents, by Winner.

Not Consistent.

Editor San Antonio Light.

Your attention is respectfully called to the fact that one of the principal opposers of the sewerage proposition, soon to be submitted to the citizens of San Antonio for approval or rejection, Mr. Ed. Braden, who most strenuously objects to the sewerage being turned into the river below town, has no objections to emptying the sewerage from the county jail into the San Pedro creek, as appears from the letter of the County Commissioners, showing that it makes considerable difference with some people whose bull is gored.
